Dear Larisa K. Phillips:

The New York State Continuing Legal Education Board received your application seeking accreditation of the following out-of-state course:

Name of Course: The Counselors of Real Estate 2019 Annual Convention
Date(s): Nov. 6 – 9, 2019
Format: Traditional Live Classroom
Course Location: Nashville, TN
IC #: 28149

Based on the information supplied in your application and the additional information provided by you via email on December 13, 2019, it appears that the above course is accredited by several New York Approved Jurisdictions (New Jersey and South Carolina). Therefore, so long as certain requirements are satisfied, New York attorneys may apply CLE credit earned for the completion of your course to their New York CLE requirement without the need for a review of your application by New York. Although you may be able to inform attorneys that New York's Approved Jurisdiction policy applies, you may not advertise that the course has been accredited by New York. Please also note that the obligations of accreditation set forth in New York's Regulations and Guidelines do not apply to you.

Please refer to the "Approved Jurisdictions" section of the CLE website for details and a list of New York's Approved Jurisdictions, available at: <http://www.nycourts.gov/attorneys/cle/approvedjurisdictions.shtml>. Please read New York's Approved Jurisdiction policy carefully to make sure that you comply with all requirements, and in particular, please pay attention to the requirements regarding a) written materials, and b) attorney faculty. Enclosed please find your application materials.

If you have any questions, please feel free to contact a member of the CLE staff at 212-428-2105, or toll free for calls from outside New York City at 877-NYS-4CLE.

Sincerely,
New York State CLE Board Staff
