

LINDSEY CANNON

DIRECTOR

Lindsey got her first exposure to the site selection world when she worked at the South Carolina Department of Commerce right after college. After a few years, she jumped to the consulting side of the table and joined McCallum Sweeney Consulting. When McCallum Sweeney closed in 2018, she joined a fellow colleague in starting Quest Site Solutions.

PROFILE

Lindsey Cannon is a Director with Quest Site Solutions, providing site selection services and economic development consulting to companies and organizations worldwide. Before joining Quest, Lindsey was a Principal with McCallum Sweeney Consulting.

With more than 15 years of experience in site selection and economic development, Lindsey assists companies in identifying, evaluating, and selecting the optimal location for their capital investment. She provides specialized skills and services to clients in the areas of detailed location evaluations including properties, infrastructure, transportation, labor and demographics, state and local taxes, and incentives.

Lindsey also provides services and programs for states, utilities, communities, and private landowners to increase the attractiveness of their community and/or property to industrial prospects. These services include site evaluations and certifications, site identification, strategic planning, target industry analysis, and workforce/labor evaluations.
