

Ken Oswald
Oswald Company
CEO

Ken started the Oswald Company in 1991, leveraging his experience from leadership positions in construction and development firms. He began his career in 1973, moving quickly through the ranks of area construction companies, developing a solid foundation in sales, marketing, development, preconstruction and construction services.

Now in its 26th year, Oswald Company is an industry leader providing development and construction services in the Greater Cincinnati area with over $75 million in revenue. Oswald has specialized expertise in a number of markets including healthcare, retail, corporate, senior care, industrial, and multifamily. As CEO, Ken is an idea guy focused on strategic expansion and community engagement.

Ken is active in the community, serving on boards for the Cincinnati Playhouse in the Park, Cincinnati Shakespeare Company, Boys Hope Girls Hope and the University of Cincinnati Real Estate Board. Ken enjoys staying active, spending time with family and grandkids, figure drawing, golfing and taking French lessons.
