Valuation & Advisory
Practice Group Member | Retail
Cushman & Wakefield of Oregon, Inc.

Professional Expertise

Jay F. Booth serves as Senior Managing Director of Cushman & Wakefield's Valuation & Advisory, Pacific Northwest region. He also serves in a leadership role within V&A's Retail Industry Group. Mr. Booth joined the New York office of Cushman & Wakefield in 1993, and relocated to Portland, Oregon in 1998. Prior to joining Cushman & Wakefield, Mr. Booth was an Associate with Appraisal Group, Inc. in Portland, Oregon from 1990 to 1993. AGI was a regional valuation and advisory firm that later became Columbia Consulting Inc., specializing in all property types, including industrials, office buildings, retail centers, and special use properties. At AGI, Mr. Booth also performed extensive work on market analyses and supply and demand studies.

Mr. Booth has a broad range of experience in counseling and valuation for a full array of property types. As part of Cushman & Wakefield's Valuation & Advisory Retail Industry Group, Mr. Booth's primary focus is major national retail properties, including regional malls, specialty centers, department stores, power and lifestyle centers, factory outlet centers and other retail formats. He has appraised or consulted on over 400 regional mall assignments in almost every state.
